

TRAPPER EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY

Raccoon State Recreation Area will be hosting a Trapper Education Course on Saturday, November 1st, 2008 in the park office. This class is sponsored by the Indiana State Trappers Association and the IDNR.

Experienced trappers from the Indiana State Trappers Association, Indiana Conservation Officers, and Indiana Furbearer Program will be providing hands-on training and instruction.

This class is for all age groups and will be held from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM. The class is free and lunch will be provided. Drinks are available through a vending machine.

Subjects covered at the class include:

- Furbearer Management, Behavior, and Disease
- Trapper Safety
- Historical Culture of Trapping
- Sportsmanship, Rules and Regulations, and Trapper Ethics
- Advanced Trapping Technology
- Equipment Modifications and Preparation
- Trap Setting Demonstrations
- Proper Fur Handling Techniques
- Trapline Management
- ...And Much More!!!!

Come and enjoy a day of fun and learning and earn your trapping certification.

Please register for the class by contacting:

Stu Grell
Attica, IN
765-572-2207
Email: sgrell@wptc.us

Raccoon State Recreation Area is located on U.S. Hwy. 36 in Parke County in west central Indiana, 50 miles west of Indianapolis and 35 miles northeast of Terre Haute. For more information about this event please call 765-344-1412.